

PEARY PARTY BESET BY ICE PERLS IN DASH FOR POLE

THE PEARYS, THE ROOSEVELT, AND RETURN ROUTE FROM THE "FARTHEST NORTH"

Latest photographs of Peary, his wife and eldest daughter, the latter known as the "Esquimaux baby" on account of her birth in the Arctic zone, Peary's picture shows how he has aged from exposure in the frigid climate. The map shows the route of his return from the "Farthest North" to Sydney, where he is expected now at any time.

ST. GEORGE'S BAY, N. P., Nov. 20.—The Roosevelt, Commander Peary's Arctic steamer, is here where she stopped to rest. She expects to sail to Port au Prince as soon as the weather is favorable.

The story of the Peary expedition's trip in the North Pole through dangers that would appall the ordinary man is a very thrilling one.

The Roosevelt left St. John, N. B., on the 10th inst., and sailed south to the north. It was on the 15th inst. that the trip to the North Pole began. The Peary party consisted of Peary, his wife, his daughter, and a crew of 25 men. They were equipped with sledges, dogs, and provisions for a journey of several months.

The Peary party reached the North Pole on November 11th. They were the first to reach the North Pole by land. The journey was a difficult one, and the Peary party faced many dangers, including ice storms, lack of food, and exhaustion.

The Peary party returned to St. John, N. B., on November 20th. They were met by a large crowd of people, and the Peary party was celebrated as heroes.

Travel on Thin Ice.

It was while on this ice that some of the dogs were killed and the sledges were broken up for fuel, with which to cook. The Peary party was forced to travel on thin ice, and the dogs were killed because they were unable to find food. The sledges were broken up because they were unable to find a way through the ice.

The Peary party was forced to travel on thin ice, and the dogs were killed because they were unable to find food. The sledges were broken up because they were unable to find a way through the ice.

100 DOGS PERISH.

By February 20 only 100 of the dogs out of an original pack of 220 remained. The party went to Cape Hare to reconnoiter. The dogs were used to pull the sledges, and many of them died because of lack of food and exposure to the cold.

Fought Way to Civilization.

After a long and arduous journey, the Peary party reached Cape Hare. They were met by a large crowd of people, and the Peary party was celebrated as heroes.

CHILD FELL 40 FEET, UNHURT.

John Christopher, a son of the Peary party, fell 40 feet from a cliff. He was unhurt, and the incident was a relief to the party.

NAVAL CLERKS STRIKE.

Peary clerks employed in discharging cargo of the "Columbian" went out on strike yesterday because two men were employed. The strike was called by the clerks because they felt that the two men were not qualified to do the work.

BATON WON LYNN GIRL AS BRIDE-TO-BE.

A romance which began on the landing deck of old Suffolk, to Oxford, came to its happy end today in the marriage, in St. James' Cathedral, London, of the daughter of the late Lord Lytton, to Captain B. A. P. Schell, of the Twentieth Hussars of Bound Water, London, Suffolk.

Castle Lytton, from London, was the bride. The bride was the daughter of the late Lord Lytton, and the groom was the son of the late Lord Lytton.

The wedding was a grand affair, and the bride and groom were married in the presence of many guests.

WOMEN SHOPLIFTERS FACE PUNISHMENT IN TEARS; ONE PAYS $500, ONE GOES TO JAIL

MARY THOMPSON.

MARGARET GRAHAM.

TWO SHOPLIFTERS WHO RECEIVED HEAVIEST FINE EVER IMPOSED.

The fine meted out to these women was $500. Mary Thompson, on the left, paid. Margaret Graham, on the right, could not raise the money and is sent to jail. Both are married.

One Who Couldn't Raise Cash Will Wash the Prison Floors Three Months.

Trembling with fear and weeping bitterly, Mary Thompson and Margaret Graham stood at the bar of justice in the Superior Criminal Court yesterday, self-confessed shoplifters, and heard the heaviest fine in the history of the court meted out to Judge Brown for the offense, a fine of $500 being imposed in each case.

Some hopes had been entertained that the court would divide the amount of the fine or give the defendants time in which to pay the debt, but their hopes were dashed, and Mrs. Graham, unable to pay the fine, was led to the detention room, while Mrs. Thompson, who had a large sum of money, was released.

Both women were charged with the theft of a coat and a hat from the store of J. J. Brown, 100 State street, and with the theft of a coat and a hat from the store of J. J. Brown, 100 State street.

The court was crowded when the women were called to plead. The fact that

OBJECTS TO NAMING A DOG "HONY" Why, I ask, should the name of so base a predicate be given to the noblest and truest of God's dumb creatures? By "Hony" I mean "Honey," a sweetened name, which in turn refers to a "car dog," but that same "car dog," if shown a bit of affection and protection, will develop into a true, staunch and noble friend.
